PROGRAM

Program Chair Jeff Deer introduced our guest speaker, Dew-Anne Langeaon, Ho'okele Health Navigator's Co-Founder and Chief Executive Officer. Dew-Anne has over 20 years of healthcare leadership experience in healthcare finance, hospital and physician group operations and health system strategic business development with over a decade in senior executive management. Prior to co-founding Ho'okele, she served as Executive Vice President and Chief Strategic Officer for Hawaii Pacific Health where she was responsible for strategy, business development, mergers and acquisitions, research, risk management, patient safety and quality management. Dew-Anne is a Certified Public Accountant in Hawaii and she previously worked with the international accounting firm Deloitte and Touche as an audit manager in the Honolulu Office until 1993 when she joined Hawaii Pacific Health. Dew-Anne is a member of the Healthcare Financial Managers Association; the Hawaii Society of CPAs, the American Institute of CPAs, and The Pacific Club. A recognized leader in the community, Dew-Anne also serves on the Boards of several for profit health technology start up ventures as well as local charitable organizations including the American Red Cross Hawaii Chapter, Catholic Charities of Hawaii and St. Andrew's Priory School.

Ho'okele Health Navigator is an innovative approach to health management using communication technology readily available and in use by 62% of their targeted market...retiring "boomers". Users will purchase a system and pay for maintenance cost related to services selected.

Dew-Ann described how Ho'okele Health Navigator has helped with:

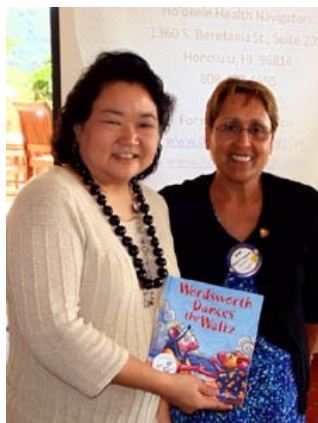

- Assessing diagnosis and treatment options.
- Researching the available evidence based approaches to treatment.

IN THE WAKE

- Ease the burden of communication between various doctors.
- Coordinate communication with concerned loved ones to keep them informed.
- Make appointments with providers and support services to meet elder parents' needs.
- Help finding a doctor or service.
- Review current medications and understand their effects with a pharmacist.
- Accompany a loved one to office visits and procedures.
- Help elderly parents identify and access various community resources.

A Ho'okele Health Navigator can act as a knowledgeable surrogate family member to bridge the geographic, communication or language gaps to help you and your family stay informed by:

- Attending office visits or outpatient procedures with you or a loved one.
- Helping you talk with your physician about your concerns, questions, or issues.
- Communicating progress reports back to concerned loved ones whom you wish to keep informed.
- Visiting as a bedside companion for a loved one in an assisted living or long-term care facility.
- Easing language gaps with providers through bilingual Health Navigators.
- Providing patient education tailored to your individual needs and questions.
